Sandy's Message

Share our T'ai Chi Chih practice with the World, 10a.m. April 30, 2016

What a joy it is to share T'ai Chi Chih with other people and also to hear them express gratitude for the practice that has been instrumental in bringing about a change in their life. As practitioners we all experience some benefit or most likely we would not continue working with the form.

On Saturday, April 30th at 10am we have the opportunity to share our practice with the world in an energetic way. What started out as, World T'ai Chi Qigong Day, has transformed into World Healing Day. On the last Saturday of April practitioners of Tai Chi, Qigong, Yoga, Meditation, Prayer, Sacred dance, Chanting and other such practices gather in groups or individually in a spirit of unity to create a vibration of peace and compassion around the world, to surround the world with a flowing web of positive energy.

I would like to encourage everyone who practices T'ai Chi Chih to set aside 10 am on April 30th and enter into the Cosmic Rhythm, as Justin might call it, by doing T'ai Chi Chih. Provide an opportunity for T'ai Chi Chih to take its place alongside other beneficial practices and lend its power to benefit the world and mankind.

**For a more in depth perspective read the Feb. 2016 VFJ Article, which should be arriving in you mail box any day now.*

Community Updates

August 11-14, The 2016 Teacher's Conference - University of WA, Seattle WA

Conference this year will be held on the campus of the University of Washington which is located on Lake Washington in Seattle. August is a beautiful month in Washington. Our sleeping rooms (each with private bathroom) and moving space are in one building and the dining space is in the building next door, so we will have many opportunities to walk outside.

August 14-16, Post Conference Seijaku Accreditation and Seijaku Workshop - University of WA, Seattle WA

Justin's Insights

Going beyond technique

"The fencer, the swordsman whose life depends on instantaneous reaction far more rapid than mental response – intuitive sensing, if you will – and the jazz pianist, who has no time to think as he improvises, all cultivate something far beyond necessary technique. It is not enough to be a mere technician, no matter how skilled. When one goes beyond technique, it is Myo, the great mystery. It is the reason enlightened Zen men tend to be artists, poets, etc., all on a spontaneous basis, the manifestation of enlightenment.

"When I tell T'ai Chi Chih teachers to 'Sink into the Essence,' this is what I'm referring to – let T'ai Chi Chih do T'ai Chi Chih."

Chi Reflections

Being bound is a delusion

We must always bear in mind that we are not going to be free, but are free already. Every idea that we are bound is a delusion.

~Swami Vivekananda

Water

Muddy water, let stand, becomes clear.

~Lao-tzu

Surrender

When we meet life undefended, even for a moment, we discover that we have no enemy but fear itself.

In surrender, we choose to let our hearts break a thousand times instead of living our life trapped in fear.

Each time we are willing to stay open and broken, the hard shields of defense soften and expand a little bit more.

~Chameli Ardagh
