Sandy's Message: Arriving Fully with Awareness

I find through years of teaching my tendency is to exaggerate sometimes to get a point across. This has created a habit in my practice of over shifting in my front-and-back movements. I became aware of this when I noticed a lightness in the heel of my front foot at the end of a weight shift into that leg/foot. Ideally, at the end of each weight shift, the weight should fill the bottom of my foot evenly. If I shift too far going forward my front heel becomes light or may even slightly come off the ground. This could also throw my balance off.

One way I am working to bring this imbalance into balance is to recognize the moment my weight arrives fully in to the foot. A silent "arrive" is voiced in my mind. This has the added bonus of keeping my wandering mind focused on my practice in an awareness way, not a thinking way. And, I am also focusing below the waist which is ideal for the flow of chi.

As we shift the weight in T'ai Chi Chih, whether in a side-to-side movement or a front-and-back movement, we feel the weight arrive equally across the bottom of each weighted foot. Devote a practice with the focus of noticing the weight "arriving" on the bottom of the foot each time you come to the end of a weight shift, whether in a front-and-back movement or a side-to-side movement.

Next month's article will explore the glide in between each arrival.

2017 Teacher's Conference Message: Feel the Chi ~ Share the Chi

I am honored and grateful for the opportunity to host next year's T'ai Chi Chih Teachers' Conference in Colorado. I was called to help build a T'ai Chi Chih community in Colorado and I am now called to help support and grow our world-wide T'ai Chi Chih community through hosting next year's conference. I have experienced the value and joy of coming together in community in both Minnesota and in Colorado and at the Teachers' conferences I have attended.

We are all united by our call to practice and share the Chi. There is something magical that happens when people come together united by something greater than themselves. Experience that magic at next year's conference. We have an amazing core team and a whole community ready to welcome you. We are in the process of closing in on our dates and location. As soon as we know them we will communicate them to you so you can mark your calendars. It will most likely be in the Denver/Boulder area in June or July.

The 2016 conference in Seattle was small in numbers but large in impact. The conference team did a great job and I thank them. We all left inspired, enriched and more connected as a community. If you missed this year's conference, do not miss next year's! You will shine brighter and your students will feel it. I look forward to seeing you all there!

~Marie Dotts ~ 2017 Conference Host

Justin's Insights

Becoming

Nothing is in a state of Being; everything is in a state of Becoming (from one point of view). T'ai Chi Chih can greatly influence that path of Becoming.

Chi Reflections

The Painful Beauty of Impermanence ...

As we watch the blossom falling, we see ourselves in it, and we feel the gravity of the moment. ~Leo Babautab

An old day passes, a new day arrives

*Old friends pass away, new friends appear.
It is just like the days.
An old day passes, a new day arrives.
The important thing is to make it meaningful:
a meaningful friend - or a meaningful day.*
~Dalai Lama

Rigidity

*The most rigid structures,
the most impervious to change,
will collapse first.*
~ Eckhart Tolle

A TCC Retreat offers a wonderful way to:

- Deepen our experience and understanding of TCC
- Refine our movements, and especially HOW TO MOVE for a greater flow of Chi
- Give oneself a time of deep relaxation and personal renewal of body, mind and spirit
- Connect with others in the TCC Community.

By retreating from the activities of daily life to recharge your physical, mental & spiritual "batteries", you can gain a new perspective and move forward with greater ease and joy in your TCC practice and in your life . ~Pam Towne
